

Sample Earth Day Video #1: Our environment in the news

Our environment in the news? This script can make a celebrity newsperson out of you!

The environment is all the news, as it should be!

Find an article in the news written about the environment and turn it into a fun video!

Change is in the air!

Voice or written: Climate change may be adding to the extreme changes in temperature around the globe:

Students act out extreme cold temps in places where it doesn't usually get cold. Use the globe or other map visuals to point to places.

Voice or written: "Dress for the weather? It's EXTREEEEME

(Possible visuals: kids on a beach scene wearing winter coats and hats.)

Voice or written: Extreme weather events: charts showing the hurricane season extremes, wind speeds, water levels, time to clean up, how many people out of their homes ... and how climate change may be causing weather events to be more severe.

Voice or written: "Hurricane season was the WORST ever"

(Possible visuals: kids outside with an umbrella.)

Let's change climate change

Voice or written: "Let's change climate change!"

What are some ideas for how we can learn more about changes in the atmosphere, our animal kingdom and our land, and our weather.

What are some ideas for keeping our carbon emissions down?

Voice or written: "Let's change climate change!"

(Possible visuals: kids are interviewed by another kid holding microphone get an idea from 5 or 6 kids.)